

A HALF-DAY CERTIFICATION COURSE

Transportation of Dangerous Goods - Propane & LPG

INSTRUCTION & CERTIFICATION FOR:

- √ Enhanced Workplace Safety
- √ Due Diligence
- √ Regulatory Compliance

The Transportation of Dangerous Goods (TDG) Regulations apply to the offering for transport, handling, and transporting of dangerous goods - including propane and liquefied petroleum gas.

Wholesale marketers, transporters and retailers of propane should ensure their operations comply with TDG requirements and that their employees receive adequate training.

PTI course #100-03 addresses how to comply with TDG as it applies to propane and LPG shipments by road and by rail. This course includes a multiple-choice exam.

Successful participants will receive a certificate of training (valid for 36 months).
